Issues in End of Life Care

Tuesday, March 27, 2012 9:00 AM – 3:30 PM

Instructor: Christie Neuger

Caring for people at the end of life and helping congregants prepare for end of life concerns are key elements of pastoral ministry. In this course we will look at how to help people in the congregation have appropriate conversations about end of life issues. We will explore the role of advance directives, ethical wills, and intergenerational conversations about end of life preferences and preparation. We will also look at theological and spiritual issues associated with end of life meaning-making. Finally, we will discuss grief dynamics and grief care.
